

Beyond Today...

ARCQE PRESENTS: Early Learning and Care Conference in honor of ...Celebrate The Child Within Us All

National Child's Day – November 20, 2010
Radisson Hotel, Edmonton Alberta

SAVE THE DATE - November 20, 2010

Who Should Attend...

Early Childhood Professionals, Preschool Teachers, Out of School Care Staff, Child Advocates, Administrators and any one interested in learning more about quality child care for children.

What to Expect...

Exceptional all new research based ARCQE workshops

Official certificates for each session attended as evidence for accreditation

Special information and greetings from the Canadian Child Care Federation

Networking with other professionals and agencies

Opportunity to view ARCQE services available to support Child Care and Out of School Care Accreditation

Reduced room rates and free parking for all attendees

Cost: Non member $250 (Early Bird Rate)
PTL Program Member $200 (Early Bird Rate)

Cost: Non member $300 (After Oct 08/10)
PTL Program Member $250 (After Oct 08/10)

Linguine & Laughs

"Down with SuperWoman" Masquerade

November 19, 2010

Tyson's Grill at the Beverly Crest Hotel

Join us for our first annual Linguine & Laughs Night - Masquerade Affair- as we celebrate National Child's Day with a humorous look at funny moments that unfold amidst life's journey to career success as we present...

"Down with Superwoman!"

Keynote sure to inspire all that attend

Everyone Welcome...

National Child's Day: has been nationally celebrated since 1993. It commemorates the United Nations' adoption of two documents centered on children's rights: the United Nations Declaration of Rights of the Child on November 20, 1959, and the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child on November 20, 1989.

tp://www.phac-aspc.gc.ca/ncd-jne/ncd-eng.php