Mission & Program Philosophy:

Our mission is to provide healthy and positive experiences to the children in our program. We also want to be of service to the community by providing quality child care to the working parents in the area.

- We feel children learn best in an environment of trust and encouragement. They learn best through their safe exploration during play.
- We see each child as a unique individual with varying needs, abilities and interests.
- We know the family has the most critical influence on a child's development and strive to develop an effective partnership with each child's parents.

Staff Qualifications & Experience

- All staff have current First Aid certificates
- Majority of staff are Level 3
- Staff follow the Early Childhood Code of Ethics

Unique Program Elements

- Affiliated with the Edmonton Catholic Schools – Preschool Outreach program
- Annual Family surveys
- Located in the St. Brendan School
- Spray park adjacent to school
- Family resources available onsite
