ARCQE Presents

Guiding Super Hero Play

Register
Early

Have you ever wondered what to do with Spiderman or the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles in the dramatic play area? This workshop will focus on how to use these intrinsic interests and self assigned roles of the children to give concrete learning to moral development such as honor justice, mercy and other values of human interactions. This workshop will support advanced early childhood professionals in their progression toward providing optimum learning and care for young children. The workshop directly addresses accreditation standards 1 through 3.

The workshop takes a closer look at the following areas related to Super-Hero Play:

What is Super Hero Play?

What value does it have in the early learning and care of young children?

How to facilitate interest based moral learning through super-hero play.

How to create a safe and friendly environment to support super-hero play.

Fee: $40.00 PTL Program Member $60.00 Non-Member • Handouts relating to the workshop. • Course certificate for successful completion of the workshop.
