ARCQE Presents

Weaving Cultural Sensitivity into Play Environments

Register
Early

Participants will explore the guiding principles that support cultural diversity in programs for young children, examine their own values, and become familiar with the Consciousness Continuum model - one that encourages participants to become "unconsciously competent." Participants will have the opportunity to examine concrete ways to weave culture sensitivities into the child's play environment so that each child and his/her family see themselves reflected in the program.

Workshop Objectives: Upon completion of this three hour workshop participants will be able to:

Gain a deeper understanding and appreciation of the impact of culture and language on child development and family dynamics.

Develop skills to adapt and individualize services within a family's cultural context.

Demonstrate best practices in providing care to children and families from culturally diverse backgrounds.

Integrate cultural competence in the design and delivery of programs and services.

Identify and mobilize cultural resources in the communities.

Fee: $40.00 PTL Program Member $60.00 Non-Member • Handouts relating to the workshop. • Course certificate for successful completion of the workshop.
